

Imagineering in a Box

Lesson 1 – Creating Worlds

Exercise 1 – Story

Guided Notes

Name: _____

Date: _____

- 1) Disney employees who work to build the Theme Parks and attractions are called _____ because they combine their artistic talents and imagination with engineering skills to create worlds.
- 2) If you always wanted to be an astronaut, your favorite land in the Disney Theme Parks might be _____.
- 3) Good Theme should give you a strong sense of _____.
- 4) A well build world has story, place and engages all of your _____.
- 5) The hypothetical island called _____ at Shanghai Disneyland, is set in the Caribbean during the times of pirates in the year _____.
- 6) The main event in Disney's California Adventure's Cars Land happens at the attraction _____ and is a race between you and other guests.
- 7) In the land of Pandora, the World of Avatar, you are invited to visit the _____, who are the indigenous people who help to teach respect for _____.

8) The overall design of a land takes into account the sounds, smells, sights and feel in order to provide a sense of complete _____ to the guests.

9) In environmental storytelling, the guest is the equivalent of a movie _____ since they can look and move wherever they wish in their story.

10) In environmental storytelling, the guest also has a _____ to play in the story.

11) Imagineers are _____ storytellers.

12) The 3 main differences in this type of storytelling are:

a. _____

b. _____

c. _____